San Antonio Police Arrest 3 in Capital Murder of Beeville Police Officer

This morning several arrests were made in the Capital Murder of off-duty Beeville Police Officer Gregory Stewart.

At approximately 2:30 a.m., Vincent Jessamy, DOB: 1-5-88, was arrested by officers with the San Antonio Police Department and U.S. Marshal's Service. After a short foot chase, Jessamy was arrested in the 4000 block of El Paso.

Shortly after 11:00 a.m., Marcus Anthony Acevedo, DOB: 1-12-87, and Jeremy Miera, DOB: 2-22-88, were also arrested by officers with SAPD and the Marshal's Service. Acevedo and Miera were arrested in the 200 block of Charbin without incident.

All three suspects were arrested on Capital Murder warrants stemming from the robbery/murder of off-duty Beeville Police Officer Stewart. These same three suspects are also believed to be involved in the Aggravated Robbery of a 15-year-old that occurred in the 1300 block of W. Woodlawn and the murder of Juan Cerda that occurred in the 4800 block of Fredericksburg Rd. Other charges are forthcoming.

These arrests come after the San Antonio Police Department received an anonymous tip on the identities of the suspects.

On May 7th, 2006, Stewart was off-duty and in San Antonio when he and a friend were approached by three male suspects who attempted to rob them. One of the suspects shot Stewart and fled. Stewart was transported to University Hospital where he remained until he died on May 15th.
